Reporting Procedure of Legal Advisor

1. We have read here with interest your latest report dated 23 August 1955 in which you have indicated future monthly reports will come directly to Headquarters. We feel that these reports are helpful to us both as a matter of general information and also as assistance in dealing with the Division in specific cases.

2. With regard to the specific information in the report, we have no suggestions for improving. However, it might be of mutual assistance if you were to indicate those problem areas where you find it difficult to get final answers. In many instances it is possible that we have worked on the same problem here and possibly we could furnish you the benefit of our thinking.

3. You will remember that there have been discussions regarding publishing of selected opinions of our Office to assist other components. This procedure has been in effect for sometime and the results are gratifying. We are now considering Dispatch of these opinions to you and to Ayotte.

4. We have checked on the supplements to the USCA and the Comptroller General's Decisions subsequent to Volume 32. We are informed that they will be available in approximately 30 days and they will be forwarded as soon as received. If there are any other legal materials which you feel desirable, please advise.
